A PARTISAN GOVERNMENT.

Speaking of a "party government," or rather of a partisan government, the Chicago Times makes some suggestions which are well worthy of sober consideration: "'A democratic congressman,' whatever that may be, has a poor opinion of the president's 'constitutional advisers.' Some are fresh and inexperienced; Whitney is serene and cynically indifferent; Lamar is 'a dreamer narnessed to a desk that he is afraid of losing'; Garland and Endicott are 'as negative as the dead,' and Vilas is 'a political tyro who owes his transplanting from obscurity to the fact of his having a rich, rotund voice and impressive air.' There remains the great statesman from little Delaware, and he, in this congressional critic's measurement, is the meanest man of the lot—'Mr. Bayard is absorbed in himself, and has a very poor opinion of the president, of whom he frequently speaks in private conversation with his friends as 'this man.' Bayard was bitterly disappointed by his failure to get the nomination at Chicago, and can look with indifference upon any mistake of the president that will help to illustrate the awful blunder of the party in passing over the gifted son of Delaware!'

In what manner the president looks upon Mr. Bayard's prodigious list of mistakes and blunders can only be conjectured. But the preponderant judgment of the country respecting the mistakes of the Delaware Moses is not a matter of conjecture at all. It is a judgment that gives great emphasis to the awful blunder the country would have committed in taking the great man of Delaware for president—which, however, the country would not have done. It would have avoided the awful blunder of Delaware by accepting the horrible blunder of Maine."

NOT TO HANG.

The chief justice of the supreme court of Illinois has granted a writ of error in the case of the Chicago anarchists sentenced to be hanged on the 31 of December, which stays the execution until further order of the supreme court.

The action of the supreme court is not a surprise. It was generally conceeded that a stay of sentence would be granted, partly because the supreme court of Illinois is a good deal like the supreme court of Ohio—to put it very charitably, wanting in firmness—and partly because the anarchists were convicted through an ill-founded prejudice against them which rendered an impartial verdict almost impossible. There is no sort of doubt that the criminals should be hanged. They are guilty of muder, and before they went to the Haymarket, but a court that would grant a new trial to the most cold-blooded murderers that ever contributed a chapter to the criminal annals of Illinois, would not hesitate to save the necks of the Chicago anarchists.

Taking a most hopeful view of the case the sentence of death cannot be carried out before next spring, but the chances are that it will not be carried out at all. A new trial will probably result in a disagreement or an acquittal, as the further removed the trial is from the date of the crime, the less pronounced will public sentiment become against the anarchists, and the harder it will be to find a jury that will have the courage to render a verdict of guilty.

LET THE TREATY BE RATIFIED.

Several weeks ago the Gazette made mention of an effort to secure such a treaty as would prevent the rush to Canada of forgers, bank swindlers, counterfeiters, and defaulters. For many years these classes of criminals fled to Canada as thieves and murderers used to emigrate to Texas. Her majesty's dominion on this side of the sea became such a notorious refuge for criminals that it shamed both countries, and hence the extradition treaty.

The Milwaukee Sentinel, speaking of the treaty says: "The next extradition treaty, which will doubtless be ratified by the senate, is destructive of all hospitality such as has hitherto been accorded to the American against whose methods of accumulating the property of other people there is a popular prejudice. The new treaty provides extradiction for such offenses as murder, various assaults, piracy, arson, forgery, robbery burglary, embezzlement, larceny of any sum over $20, and various others."

There is no doubt that the senate will promptly ratify the treaty. It is a matter of supreme importance to the United States that the senate ratify during the coming session. Canada should no longer become a refuge for thieves and other criminals. This country has quite enough of them there already, and for the honor of both countries the new treaty should be ratified.

An an illustration of the theory that what is sauce for the goose is not sauce for the gander, the action of the Liverpool chamber of commerce is applicable. The British government recently awarded a number of mail carrying contracts to several foreign steamship companies, because the foreign companies gave the required service at lower rates. The free trade principle of buying wherever cheapest rates can be obtained, regardless of whether such purchases closed up a home industry or not, was here directly involved, and so earnest a body of free traders as the Liverpool chamber of commerce was of course expected to approve the act without reserve. Instead of doing that the members of the chamber met and denounced the action for the reason that it would necessarily injure English shipping. The American free trader in Kentucky, South Carolina, Virginia, Alabama and a dozen other States can be inconsistent when he tries, but it does not appear that his English brother is far behind him in the race.

When party organs fall out, especially when the organs belong to the same party, there is an opportunity for amusement. During the present fall the Madison Democrat and the Oshkosh Times, both democratic, have been scoring each other to that degree of feeling that makes the little quarrel of some interest to those who are looking on. The Madison organ complains that its Oshkosh colleague, while criticising the part taken by Col. Vilas and his friends in the last campaign, does not say anything "against what the republican senator was doing." To this the Oshkosh sheet replies that, while it has scored the republicans on general principles for using money to influence elections, it "has not specified any instance against the republican senator, because it has yet to see his name attached to any letters with enclosures of cash to be used for political purposes." The last blow the Madison Democrat has not returned and probably won't, because it can't.

A dispatch comes from Washington that the reason why a successor to Delaney has not been named is because a "suitable man cannot be found." That is pretty rough on the democratic party of Wisconsin. The Milwaukee Sentinel suggests the appointment of Judge Doolittle, but the administration doesn't seem to take to that gentleman. He wanted a mission two years ago, but Mr. Cleveland could not find any use for him. The Sentinel makes another suggestion which is well worth considering: "If the administration wishes to find a man who can be trusted to represent the country in the rarified atmosphere of the city of Mexico without becoming wildly exhilarated, let it appoint ex-Senator Doolittle to fill the Mexican mission {He is a temperate man and can be relied upon not to succumb to the vinous influences which prevail in the halls of the Montezumas."

There is no political reading more interesting than the comments of certain democratic papers on the president's policy. He not only catches it from the independent democratic papers, but the mose-backs and the hidebound journals of the party like to rub salt into the wounds they make when they spear the president. One of the latest criticisms is from the Louisville Courier-Journal: "The Benton episode is neither exhilarating nor agreeable. Whichever way we take it, the attitude of the president is more or less offensive and altogether untenable. The tone of the president's letter is undemocratic, unrepublican and un-American. He talks like a benevolent overseer to a nigger that is a cornfield."

In the chapters of "Abraham Lincoln," by John G. Nicolay and John Hay, in the forthcoming Century Magazine, for December, the statement is refuted that Lincoln was sworn into service for the Black Hawk war by Lieutenant Jefferson Davis, who afterwards became the leader of the southern rebellion. A strict search of the war department records has failed to confirm the story. The records, however, show the interesting fact that Lincoln was mustered out of service at Whitewater, in the state by Lieut. Robert Anderson, who afterwards had the honor of defending Fort Sumter in the first engagement of the great slaveholder's revolt.

Ex-Senator McDonald, of Indiana, is reported as saying that the democrats may prevent the election of a republican United States senator from that state by resigning in sufficient numbers to break up the legislature, if such a course should become necessary. Of course that would be a natural thing for the democrats to do. If any revolutionary proceedings are needed to carry out any diabolical scheme, the democrats of Indiana, like their brethren of Ohio, are always on hand.

The executive committee of the American Protective Tariff League have decided to offer to the students of the senior classes in all American colleges prizes of $250, $100 and $50 for the three best essays on the subject of the advantages of a protective tariff to labor and industries of the United States, each essay not to exceed 10,000 words, and to be sent to the office of the league in New York on or before May 1, 1887, awards to be made June 15, 1887.

Mr. Cleveland refuses to reinstate Mr. Stone, the district attorney for western Pennsylvania, who made two political speeches during the campaign. The president reinstated Benton, of Missouri who made speeches as Stone had done, but Stone is republican and Benton a democrat. So the conclusion is, from the president's decision in the matter, that democratic office seekers may be forgiven for making partisan speeches, but republicans can not be.

Ex-congressman Frank Hurd, of Ohio, says he never saw the democratic party in better shape than now. It is in good shape, in fact—in good shape to be beaten. It lost thirty congressmen at the late election, and Mr. Hurd was among the candidates defeated.

Fatally Crushed in a Cyclone.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—A cyclonic storm swept over Gloucester county, N. J., Thursday, damaging several buildings Charles Wynne, a brick yard owner at Pitman, was probably fatally crushed by timbers falling on him. The windows in a railroad train near Glassboro were broken by the wind and a panic occurred among the passengers.

Costly Incendiary Fire.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 26.—An incendiary fire on Monday at Forsythe, Mo., destroyed many of the best business houses, including the office of the influential paper, Home and Farm, published by A. S. Fletcher. The loss will reach $300,000, and the insurance is small.

NATIONAL BANK NOTES

CULLED FROM THE REPORT OF THE CURRENCY COMPTROLLER.

A Contraction of Fifty-Six Million Dollars During the Past Year—How the Creditors of Broken Banks Fare—Hazen Hopeful of a Self-Supporting Postal Service—Capital Items.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 26.—The annual report of the comptroller of the currency contains suggestions for the amendment of the national bank laws in about a dozen instances, including the contingent liability of shareholders, requirement as to reserve, the limit on loans to individuals, more thorough examination of banks, and their protection against unequal state taxation.

Thirty-five hundred and eighty national banks have been organized in all, of which 2,808 are now in operation. Of these, 174 were organized during the past year, with a capital of $21,030,000; bonds held, $3,700,000; circulation, $2,900,000. Twenty-four banks went into voluntary liquidation during the year, one ceased to exist by expiration of charter, and eight failed. The failed banks have an aggregate capital of $650,000; surplus and undivided profits, $294,000; liabilities, $1,309,000. The creditors of two of these banks have been paid in full, principal and interest; in two cases dividends have reached 50 per cent., in one case 75 per cent., and one 20 per cent. The total dividends paid during the year by all insolvent banks exceeded $1,600,000, and the banks have been finally wound up and their accounts closed, leaving twenty-five insolvent banks still in the hands of receivers. Since the beginning of the system in 1863 only 112 national banks have failed. Of these thirty-eight have paid their creditors in full, and twenty have paid interest beside—fifteen in full and five in part.

Comparison is made between national banks previously existing as state institutions and those originally organized under the national bank law, and it is shown that in each case only 3 per cent of the number organized became insolvent. Among the corporations holding national bank stock, the greatest amount is held by savings banks, trust companies, and insurance companies. More than half the entire number of shareholders hold ten shares or less; about one-third hold over ten shares but less than fifty, while those holding more than fifty shares number but little more than one-ninth of the whole body.

The effect of the reduction of the public debt and the high premium on bonds upon the volume of national bank circulation is very fully illustrated. The contraction in national bank circulation during the year exceeds $6,000,000.

A large diagram, exhibiting the main features of the national banking system and their variations during the past twenty-one years, accompanies the report. From this it appears that the aggregate deposits in the banks have increased from $534,000,000 in January, 1866, to $1,775,000,000 in October, 1886, while loans and discounts have risen from $500,000 at the former date, to $1,445,000,000 at the latter date. The specie held by the national banks in 1866 was $19,000,000; in October, 1875, it was only $8,000,000, while in July, 1887, it was $177,000,000, and is now $136,000,000.

POSTAL DEPARTMENT FINANCES.

Gen. Hazen Expects the Business to Support Itself In a Few Years.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 26.—The annual report of Third Assistant Postmaster General Hazen presents an exhaustive financial exhibit of comparative postal receipts and expenditures for several years past. The last fiscal year, he says, marked a favorable turn in the tide of postal receipts, which had been receding for the two previous years. On Oct. 1, 1885, the rate of postage on first-class matter was reduced from 3 to 2 cents for each half ounce. This was a large reduction, and it affected by far the greatest of all the sources of postal revenue. The result was that the remaining nine months of the fiscal year showed a falling off of receipts compared with the previous year of $2,292,-733. The next year the receipts were still further reduced $750,000, which Gen. Hazen attributes to business depression. An improved commercial situation from September, 1885, to March, 1886, increased postal receipts $1,500,000 as compared with the corresponding six months of the preceding year, but the labor troubles again depressed business, and the total increase of receipts for the fiscal year was only $1,037,579.

Gen. Hazen is hopeful that the current year will realize a greater improvement, and with a prosperous condition of business and care in regulating postal expenditures, he looks for a self-supporting postal service in the near future. The estimated revenue for the year ending June 30, 1888, is $50,612,536 and the expenditure is expected to reach $56,-728,650.

The Police Scandal Still Kicking.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—The local papers publish interviews with a large number of representative business men regarding the decision of the commissioners in the case of Lieut. Arnold, of the police force. These exhibit an almost unanimous condemnation of the commissioners' verdict. A petition has been signed by a number of business men for presentation to the commissioners protesting against their decision, and asking the reinstatement of Lieut. Arnold.

A Scheme to Shut Out the "Boomers."

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 26.—Indian Commissioner Atkins says the report that it has been arranged to transfer the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians to Oklahoma is untrue, as such action could not be taken without consent of congress. He has, however, recommended that steps be taken to secure the consent of these Indians to such removal, which, if agreed to, would definitely preclude white settlement on the Oklahoma lands.

Making Game of Chicago's Best.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Referring to Hon. Carter H. Harrison's speech before the Nineteenth Century club, The Tribune says: "Carter Harrison, mayor of Chicago, introduced a new dish to the attention of the Nineteenth Century club at its meeting on Tuesday evening last. Speaking of the editors of the great city over whose destinies he presides, the mayor remarked: 'Boil them all into one and they couldn't govern Chicago as well as I.' The members of the club doubtless were so greatly impressed with the vision of boiled editors, were so given up to wondering how editors served up in that style tasted, that they lost sight of the shrinking modesty of the mayor."

White-Washed at a Game of Foot-Ball.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—The Harvard college and University of Pennsylvania teams played a championship game of foot-ball here Thursday in the presence of a large crowd of spectators. Harvard was victor by 28 to 0.

Ravages of Hog Cholera.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Nov. 26.—Hog cholera has not been so prevalent in ten years in this part of Indiana as now. Along the Cambridge City railroad in Rush and Shelby counties, over 4,000 head died, and the ravages of the disease are not yet stayed.

Mr. L. B. Kiefer, of Lancaster, Pa., wrote us: Having a sprained leg of almost thirty days' standing, and after trying half a dozen advertised preparations in the market without satisfactory results, I tried Salvation Oil, and in less than three days my leg was all right again. There is nothing like it.

FIRED IN SEVEN PLACES.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM A TERRIBLE DISASTER AT CHICAGO.

Hotel Guests Routed Out of Their Beds by an Incendiary Attempt—A Deadly Tug Explosion—Sad Effect of a False Report—Another Schooner Possibly Lost—Assorted Mishaps.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—A dastardly attempt to destroy the Continental hotel and its one hundred and odd inmates was made by some unknown person or persons shortly before 3 o'clock Thursday morning. The building was fired in seven different places on the three floors, and flames broke out in each place almost simultaneously, as if seven different persons were engaged in the plot to destroy the property. The night clerk was seated in the office reading a book, when he was startled by a cry of "Fire!" proceeding from one of the upper floors, and before he could collect his senses enough to act a cloud of smoke swept down the main staircase and filled the office. The clerk immediately jumped to the stairs, and as he ran up to the top floor he kept up a continuous yell, to warn the sleeping guests of their danger.

In a few minutes the guests were tumbling out of their rooms and running through the smoke-filled halls to escape to the street. Few of them waited even long enough to don ordinary coverings, so badly were they frightened. Many rushed down the stairs into the office, and, finding that apartment almost free from smoke, they remained there, though expecting momentarily to be forced to continue their flight. Several ladies were completely overcome by the excitement and nearly fainted away, but their confidence was restored shortly by the arrival of the fire department, which soon had the fire out, although it looked as though the whole building was ablaze. The loss was small, as the fire hardly got out of the rooms in which it was started. A careful investigation leaves not a shadow of doubt that it was of incendiary origin, but who was the miscreant responsible nobody has the least idea.

Suffocated in a Freight Car.

MT. CARROLL, ILL., Nov. 26.—Upon the arrival at this place of freight train No. 12 from Chicago Wednesday evening, smoke was discovered issuing from a car in the middle of the train. Investigation showed that the car contained M. V. Seavey, from West Libertyville, Ill., several horses and fowls, and a quantity of furniture billed to Dows City, Iowa. A lot of hay in the car was found to be on fire, evidently ignited by a lantern which was found broken on the floor. The stock was dead, suffocated by the smoke, and Mr. Seavey was found on his knees near the door of the car living, but so much overcome that he breathed only a few minutes after being taken out. Seavey was about fifty years of age. Telegrams were sent to his friends announcing his death.

Caught on a Revolving Shaft.

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind., Nov. 26.—Thursday afternoon Frank Kyle, an employe in Peabody's saw mill, while attending a rip-saw backed up to a shaft, which caught in his clothing and thrashed him about in a merciless manner until nearly every vestige of clothing was torn from his body. At every revolution his head and feet struck the table at which he worked, lacerating them frightfully. Just as the machinery stopped Kyle fell to the floor more dead than alive. His clothing was literally torn to shreds, even his boots and stockings being torn from his feet. He lies at home, to which he moved from Warsaw this week, in a critical condition, unable to move hand or foot or utter a word.

A Tug Blows up and Kills Five Men.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The boiler of the tug boat Sunbeam exploded Thursday afternoon at the foot of 35th street, East river, sinking the tug and instantly killing five men. From what can be learned of the accident, it appears that while the tug was making fast to the schooner James H. Deputy, of Bath, Maine, her boiler blew up with a terrific report, instantly killing four of the tug's crew, and drowning Wm. H. Hodgkins, one of the crew of the schooner. Two others were knocked down by the force of the explosion and slightly injured. Two mutilated bodies were recovered near the scene of the accident and sent to the morgue.

Freaks of a Furious Storm.

MOUNT STERLING, K., Nov. 26.—A cyclone about 100 yards wide passed through Bath county Thursday morning, uprooting large trees, blowing down post-and-rail fences, and lifting houses from their foundations. It swept a large pool of water on one farm almost dry, and the fish and turtles were found in surrounding pastures, more than fifty yards from the pool. A house on the same farm was carried twenty feet. The occupants were uninjured. The path of the storm did not touch property of any considerable value, it is believed.

Street Car Demolished by a Fire Engine.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 26.—Thursday evening fire broke out in the four-story brick building 51 South street. The building was occupied by E. Harmon & Co., dealers in butter and cheese, and A. E. Holmes & Sons, tobacco manufacturers. The total loss will aggregate $22,000, fully insured. Engine No. 4, while dashing through the streets on the way to the fire, collided with a Red Line car at the corner of Baltimore and Gay streets. The street car was demolished and four ladies were cut on the face and hands by the flying glass.

Living, with a Hole in His Brain.

DETROIT, Nov. 26.—Guy Colburn, of Waverly, while out hunting Sunday discharged his gun at a squirrel. The breech-pin blew out, striking him squarely between the eyes. He was found insensible some time after by his brother, who with some difficulty pulled out the iron, which was imbedded two inches in Guy's head, penetrating the brain. Colburn was conscious throughout the operation of removing the breech-pin, and told how the accident occurred. He is still living and seems in a fair way to recover.

Another Fatal Rear-End Collision.

ROCHESTER, PA., Nov. 26.—The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago passenger train No. 41, collided with a freight train near Conway Station at an early hour Thursday morning instantly killing Fireman Harry Burkshaw and badly injuring Engineer Shannon. The engine of the passenger train and a number of freight cars were wrecked. Burkshaw leaves a wife and three children residing in Cleveland, O., whither his remains were sent. A failure to send out a flagman from the freight train was the cause of the accident.

Snow Wrecks a Roller Rink.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Snow fell heavily and continuously here Thursday. The roof of the Pioneer rink, a structure 60 by 160 feet in dimensions, was crushed in Thursday evening by the weight of snow upon it. This caused the side walls to fall outward, and the roof fell flat to the floor of the rink. There were about thirty-five men and women in the building when the cracking of the roof was heard. The warning thus given enabled most of them to escape unhurt, but several were slightly injured. The building is owned by a stock company. The loss will be about $15,000.

Mr. Beardsmon's Sad Thanksgiving Day.

BUCHANAN, Mich., Nov. 26.—Several weeks ago the body of a man was picked up near the railway station in this city. It was supposed to be that of Mr. Beardsmon, a Berin county farmer, who was away, and word was sent to his wife. Mr. Beardsmon was not the victim, but when he returned to his home Thursday he found his wife's black hair changed to snow white, and her mind shattered so she did not know him. The identity of the body has not yet been discovered.

Found Dead in the Woods.

ASHLAND, Wis., Nov. 26.—Two pine-land hunters while out searching for William Goul, who was lost in the woods last Sunday, succeeded in finding his body Thursday about nine miles from this city and four miles from any road. His parents at Indianapolis, Ind., have been telegraphed in regard to what shall be done with the body. When found he was lying upon his back in the snow, with his rifle resting across his breast.

Fatal Blaze at Boston.

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The upper stories of Cutter & Parker's sash factory, 232 and 234 Friend street, were damaged by fire Thursday night to the extent of $10,000. A fireman named William Flavel was suffocated by smoke. Chief Weber, of the department, had a narrow escape from the same fate. A number of other firemen were rescued with difficulty from the burning structure by their comrades.

Furniture Factory Destroyed.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—John D. Raggio's furniture factory at Fourth and Dickinson streets was burned Thursday night. Two dwellings adjoining were also burned and a dozen others damaged, causing a panic among the numerous families of poor people residing therein. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. The total loss on buildings and stock is about $70,000; well insured.

Explosion of Six Tons of Powder.

LANCASTER, Wis., Nov. 26.—The powder mills at Platteville, Grant county, blew up Wednesday night. Twelve thousand pounds of powder were in them at the time. The engineer, who was the only person in the mills, was blown a long distance and rendered insensible for a time, but was not seriously injured. The explosion shattered windows in houses miles away.

does not refer possible purchasers to his victims. The Athlophoros Co. gladly refers sufferers from rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, nervous or sick headache, kidney and liver complaints to those who have been cured of these diseases by Athlophoros, and will furnish names and addresses of many such persons to those desiring them. Athlophoros is the only remedy for these diseases that can stand such a test.

Lancaster, Wis.

I have suffered more or less with rheumatism, also general debility. For the past year the trouble has constantly increased so that for a month I could not dress myself, could not get up from my chair without help. From my head to my feet every cord and muscle was stiff and sore. During this time I used various remedies all to no purpose, and continued to grow worse. My attention being called to Athlophoros I procured a bottle. I took five doses then slept easily till eight o'clock A. M. I got up and dressed myself and walked out without a cane. I was astonished at the result, could hardly realize that it had produced such an effect. I am getting to be an old man (72). I don't suppose it will make me a young man, but will help the lamp of life to burn down calmly.

SAMUEL BARSTOW.

Montfort, Wis.

I have derived more benefit from Athlophoros than any other medicine I have ever taken. I have been troubled with inflammatory rheumatism for about ten years, at times I was helpless, have tried all the medicine I could hear of but found no cure, until I got a bottle of Athlophoros. After taking one-half of it I have not been bothered since. GEO. GALLOWAY.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c. Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

A BLAST FROM BEECHER.

THE PLYMOUTH PASTOR PLUNGES INTO THE POLITICAL ARENA.

His Remarks Cover Both Sides of the Atlantic and Shake Up the Labor Question—Some Very Vigorous Views Pugnaciously Put Forth—A Sermon That Will Raise a Breeze.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher delivered a political sermon Thursday, the point of which was a vigorous review of the labor question. After contrasting the prosperous condition of the United States with that of most European countries, he spoke of the uselessness of keeping a standing army solely for the purpose of chasing a few Indians, and said it was a false sentiment to urge that the surplus in the treasury should be expended in buying useless war ships and unnecessary coast defenses.

Mr. Beecher said that England was surely verging to democratic principles, and would before long assume the early forms of American government. Disestablishment, disendowment, the land question, and other matters dealing with organic principles of the government were evidences that such a change would occur. Speaking of the severance of church and state, he intimated that such a change would be to England's good, as religion had nothing to do with politicians, and politicians nothing to do with religion.

The preacher then dwelt on the growth of Socialism and Anarchism in the land, and said: "At present the labor movement is adulterated with elements which are no part of it and which it will reject in time. Socialists and Anarchists, who have no excuse for existing, rush to every party which they expect to profit by. Anarchists are as much out of the pale of society as the wolf, and it would be no more culpable to exterminate them than it would to stamp out the copperheads, adders, and other vipers. Socialism is absolutely the worst form of monarchy.

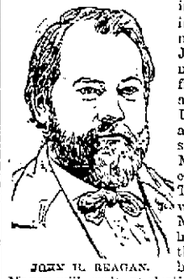
"Then there are people who ask the government to supply them with everything. They want their clothes made and their bread baked by the government. Give the government these privileges and you give it all power. Let it do this, that, and the other thing, and place a crown on it all, and you have a czar. The most active men of the labor party are foreigners, educated in other countries, and have not yet abandoned their home ideas. The labor troubles are somewhat like the complaints of children, and should be watched the same. While children must have measles and whooping-cough, yet they do not kill as a rule, and one attack prevents a recurrence of the disease."

Referring then to the equality claimed by workingmen, he said: "Classes are going to exist, and there is going to be top, bottom, and middle, and labor organization can not break that down. This idea of men wanting an equal number of working hours to prevail among all is preposterous. If a man puts his own clothes on his 6-week-old infant does that make the child his equal? The workingmen's position is better in this country than it is in any other or ever was before. The reason so many of them are suffering is because of the immorality of workingmen. They want the enjoyment to-day, and are not willing to look to the future.

"They will say that I stand in the pulpit wearing broadcloth clothes and preach to church magnates, and that I have no sympathy with workingmen—I, who have come from the common people. If I have no sympathy with them, who has? When I hear of men asking the government for eight hours with more pay, I can not bear it. I have no sympathy with eight-hour men who have fourteen-hour wives. I want equality for everybody. I favor organization for the workingmen because it tends to educate them, but I do not think the labor problem can be solved on the basis adopted by workingmen who seek equality in labor."

Reagan Ambitious of Senatorial Honors.

PALESTINE, Tex., Nov. 26.—Before leaving here for Washington Wednesday night Congressman J. H. Reagan announced to his friends that he is a candidate for the United States senate, and hopes to succeed Senator Maxey, whose term expires next March. The announcement was a surprise, as Mr. Reagan has hitherto declared that he would not be a candidate. Mr. Maxey will seek re-election, and Governor Ireland and Judge Terrill will also try to get the place.



JOHN H. REAGAN.

Nothing More Probable.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Nov. 26.—A few nights ago a mob of masked men at Edinburg, ten miles north of here, took Sam Wilder out and beat him till he was left for dead. A few days before the whipping Lizzie Wells, a handsome young lady living with his mother, gave birth to a child, of which he was the father. His neglect of her brought about the whipping. He refused to allow a physician to attend her, and the girl, whose parents live in Kokomo, has since died. It is feared that Wilder will be lynched.

Brands of Beer Boycotted.

DETROIT, Nov. 26.—The trades council and district assembly of the Knights of Labor, representing about 7,000 members, Wednesday night put a boycott on the beer brewed by the Voight, Kling, Stroh, Gobel, and Houck brewing companies, the object being to break up the Brewers' association, which has been engaged in a long war with the Brewers' union. The employing brewers talk of arresting some of the most prominent instigators of the boycott for conspiracy.

Good Coal Found in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 26.—A company has been boring for natural gas near this city for some time, and Thursday, at a depth of 501 feet, the borers struck a vein of splendid bituminous coal, seven feet in thickness. Those who understand coal-mining say this vein underlies the whole of this (Douglas) county. The discovery has caused considerable enthusiasm, as cheap coal is what Omaha has needed to make her a manufacturing city.

Our Liberty in Danger.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The heavy cloth curtain, which during the daytime covers the electric light lenses of the statue of Liberty, caught fire Monday night and fell on the light woodwork of the staircase in the interior of the statue. It was only by the hardest work that a bad fire was averted and the great statue saved from ruin.

Go West to Hear the News.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 26.—A report reached Washington from the west Thursday night that an attempt had been made to kill the president Thursday, but up to 11 o'clock all was quiet and serene at the White House, and the first intelligence of the alleged attempt upon the president's life was conveyed there in the report from the west.

THE EMPIRE IS PEACE,

But the Kaiser Wants More Soldiers—Emperor Wilhelm's Speech.

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—The reichstag was formally opened Thursday by Herr Von Boetticher, imperial minister of the interior, who read the emperor's address. The speech was decidedly optimistic in tone, and its expressions of confidence in the continuance of peace throughout Europe were received with evident satisfaction.

The object and policy of the German empire, which enjoys peaceful relations with all states, the emperor says, is to exert in favor of the maintenance of concord among all the powers that influence which accrues to Germany from her love of peace and the universal confidence reposed in the empire from the fact that Germany is not concerned in the pending questions.

The emperor announces the inauguration of measures to raise the German army to an effective footing, and justifies this action by calling attention to the recent increase of the armies of neighboring states. The resources required by this and other necessary additions to the annual expenditures of the government are to be raised by increasing the matriculatory contributions and applying them to the public credit.

Regarding reform measures, the emperor says the extension of the scope of workingmen's accident insurance is desirable, and recommends legislation to that end. The government also sees the desirability of abandoning taxation reform until the people shall more clearly recognize the necessity for it.

Bulgarian Conspirators Boycotted.

SOFIA, Nov. 26.—Forty-one cadets in the Military school were implicated in the conspiracy to depose Prince Alexander, and convicted of having assisted in his deposition. All of them, together with Capt. Sepavischeroff, the principal of the school, were pardoned and liberated Thursday, but since their release have been shunned by their former comrades. It is probable that the school will be reorganized.

John Bright Loyal to Free Trade.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Mr. John Bright has written a letter expressing his approval of the proposal to erect a statue to the memory of Sir Richard Cobden, at Stockport. Mr. Bright denies that free trade has imperilled Great Britain, and claims that it has had the contrary effect. He relates that he recently told an American gentleman that the restoration of slavery in America was as likely to occur as the revival of protection in England.

His Faith in the Liberal Party.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Earl Spencer, in a speech at Leicester Thursday evening, denied that the Liberals had sustained irrevocable defeat, and declared that their principles would yet be triumphant. Their former reforms had been many and great, but more and greater reforms were yet to be accomplished, and these could only be achieved by the Liberal party.

Bank Defalcation in Sicily.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Mangnaro Bros., bankers, of Centuric, Sicily, have failed, and their collapse has created wide surprise and consternation, their bank having always been supposed to be as solid as a rock. The brothers, who are found to be defaulters in large amounts, have been arrested, and their father, overwhelmed with grief and shame, committed suicide Wednesday.

A Robust Turkish Pasha.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 26.—Dijemil Pasha, governor of Aleppo, according to to advices received here was recently attacked in the streets of Aleppo by an Armenian, who drew a revolver and fired several times at the governor. The latter, although wounded, seized his assailant, disarmed him, and without assistance took him to jail.

Bulgaria Rejects a Russian Puppet.

SOFIA, Nov. 26.—The Bulgarian Government, in reply to the inquiry whether the election of the prince of Mingrelia as prince of Bulgaria would be acceptable, has notified the porte that his election would be incompatible with the terms of the treaty of Berlin, and therefore Bulgaria would not accept him.

A Verdict in Favor of Coleridge.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The jury in the case of Charles W. Adams against his father-in-law, Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, for libel and defamation of character, returned a verdict Thursday in favor of defendant on the ground of privileged communication.

The Rothschild Art Museum.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The splendid art collection of Baron Meyer Charles de Rothschild, at Frankfort, will not be scattered. The baron's heirs intend to unite with it the collection now at Gaontherbsberg, thus forming a public art museum.

Wants Them to Explain or Get Out.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Mr. Gladstone has written a letter in which he expresses the hope that Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Hartington will abate their opposition, explain their course, or cease absolutely to co-operate with the Liberal party.

British British Policemen.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The blue book published Thursday contains information that an inquiry is in progress into charges against the British police in Bechuanaland systematically outraging natives.

Russian Methods in Bulgarian.

SOFIA, Nov. 26.—A telegram has been found in the house of one of the Bourgas conspirators directed to the Russian vice consul at Boutrgas, and detailing the plan of the recent revolt.

A Colliery Seven-Hour Movement.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—A conference representing 400,000 colliers, held at Manchester Thursday, passed resolutions limiting a day's labor in the mines to seven hours.

Napoleon's Mistress Dead.

PARIS, Nov. 26.—Marguerite Bellanger, a famous demi-mondaine, and once the mistress of Napoleon III, died at Villeneuve Monday.

A Sort Of Political Off-Shoot

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The famous district assembly 49 K. of L., has reorganized into an incorporated body called the New York Protective Association. The object named in the articles of incorporation are: To promote social intercourse among members, and with members of kindred societies to assist in maintaining and advancing wage; to relieve distress; to advance the aims of the K. of L., by influencing the nomination and assisting the election of candidates for office regardless of party affiliations, who advocate such aims; to promote the study of political economy; and to establish co-operative enterprises.

Mighty Bad Men to Let Loose.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 26.—Twenty-eight convicts in the state prison have been pardoned by the board of pardons, and were released Wednesday. The most noted were Ed Condit, who victimized many Wall street brokers in 1882 by clever forgeries, and William Sipple, the telegraph operator who sent a bogus order two years ago to an Erie railway agent in the name of an official, ordering money removed from a safe and placed where Sipple could get it.

THE WAGES OF UNRIGHTEOUSNESS,

Embezzler Reed's Wretched Condition—His Wife Heard From.

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—It is not at all unlikely that the defaulter Reed will pay the penalty of his misdeeds with his life. Should he survive the shock of his disgrace he will be nothing more than a mental and physical wreck. Wednesday night he lay in a critical condition, and his death would not have been a matter of surprise. When taken to jail Reed was in a terrible state, not having slept or scarcely eaten for seven days. Just previous to his arrest he had braced up a little, but upon the moment of his incarceration he gave way entirely as he realized to the fullest degree his position as a felon. For hours he lay as one dead upon his pallet of straw, and has passed his time since pacing the floor and muttering unintelligibly, frequently putting his hands to his head as if in pain, and taking notice of no one except his relatives and a few friends, who can do nothing for him but gaze with tearful eyes upon the wretched man. He gets no sleep except under the influence of opiates.

Mrs. Reed denies in toto the charges of infidelity made against her, and attributes Reed's conduct in driving her from him to the influence of a widow whom he has visited frequently for some years. She says Reed enticed her to her mother's house in Hudson by a forged telegram and that she was confronted with trumped-up charges. On her return to Boston the next day she found her home, in which she had lived for many years, desolate, and the furniture in the hands of auctioneers. This was in 1885. She thinks Reed was unbalanced at the time. Mrs. Reed has since lived quietly with her mother at Hudson. She says she loves her husband still, and will do anything she can to help him in his trouble.

LABOR OUTRAGE IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Non-Union Men Assaulted—One Striker Wounded—A "Scab" Badly Beaten.

PEABODY, Mass., Nov. 26.—While Simeon Yeaton, keeper of a non-union boarding house on Main street, Peabody, and his brother were walking down Boston street, Salem, Thursday afternoon, a crowd of men began following them. One man kicked Simeon Yeaton and another struck him, whereupon Yeaton drew his revolver and fired into the crowd, the ball striking John Halpine, a Peabody man, in the left side, inflicting a severe flesh wound, which bled profusely. The crowd fell back, and the police took charge of Yeaton and his brother and carried them to the Salem police station. The revolver was wrested from Yeaton before the officers arrived.

Excitement ran high, and just then a Salem & Danvers horse car from Peabody came along with three non-union men on board. The maddened rioters surrounded the car, pulled Conductor Nevers and Driver Dougherty off and began an assault on the three men inside, one of whom was terribly beaten about the face. Five windows were stove in and one car cushion was soaked with the blood of the non-union men. The police arrived on the scene and the mob were scattered. A Naumkeag car was also halted. It had four non-union men on board, but they escaped toward Peabody. The Peabody police went to the line and escorted several men to their boarding houses. Halpine went to the Salem hospital and had his wound dressed.

GRANTED A SUPERSEDEAS.

A New Lease of Life for the Chicago Anarchists.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., Nov. 26.—The Chicago Anarchists have a new lease upon life, at least for a few months. Judge Scott, of the supreme court, who has been closeted in his private office for the past two days reviewing the record in the great case, granted a supersedeas Thursday morning. The attorneys in the case felt jubilant when the decision was announced, especially Capt Black, who had war n words of praise for Judge Scott, and was very confident that there was a brighter day for his clients.

Combination of New Orleans Underwriters.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 26.—All fire insurance companies and agencies doing business in this city, except four, have formed a combination styled the New Orleans Fire Underwriters' association, and have advanced rates of insurance on all mercantile business from 10 to 15 per cent., and on cotton 25 per cent. The four companies refusing to enter the combination are the Home, the Louisiana, the Lafayette, and the Farmers, all local concerns.

THE INTER OCEAN

OF CHICAGO

In Circulation and Political Influence is the Leading Republican Newspaper

IN THE NORTHWEST.

THE INTER OCEAN has from the beginning been the defender of home institutions and American ideas. It is the advocate of equal rights for all before the law, of protection to American labor, and of the idea that America is for Americans—not radically Americans by birth, but true citizens of the Republic. It believes in the West and Western men, holds to the idea that the future seat of empire will be in the Mississippi Valley, and is bold and aggressive in its opposition to the unholy alliance between the money-changers of New York City and the States lately in rebellion.

THE INTER OCEAN is earnestly in favor of the Republican party because I believes the principles of that party are correct, and that, honestly carried out, they will best protect the rights and advance the interests of the whole people. It is not, however, a blind follower, but is always ready to denounce Republican wrong-doing, either in high or low places.

THE INTER OCEAN has always maintained that the Nation is under an obligation to the soldiers of the late war, who jeopardized their lives to protect it from armed treason, which it can never repay, and, consequently, has advocated the establishment of Soldiers' Homes and the enactment of such pension laws as would leave no disabled veteran in want.

As a Newspaper THE INTER OCEAN is not excelled in the United States. Aside from the service of the Associated Press, in which it holds a membership, it keeps a large body of Special Correspondents, both in this country and in the Old World, and has SPECIAL LEASED TELEGRAPHIC WIRES connecting its Chicago office with WASHINGTON and NEW YORK, by means of which cities it has SPECIAL NEWS BUREAUS and maintains Branch Offices.

The Daily Inter Ocean

Is published every day in the year.

Price, exclusive of Sunday, - - - $ 8.00 per Year
" Sunday inclosed, - - - 10.00 " "

The Semi-Weekly Inter Ocean

Is published on MONDAYS and THURSDAYS, and contains the News condensed from the Daily.

Among other features, THE SEMI-WEEKLY prints the Sermons of Prof. Swing and other leading Ministers of Chicago.

Price, $2.50 per Year.

The Weekly Inter Ocean

Has the LARGEST CIRCULATION of any weekly paper West of New York.

In 1884, before the reduction of postage, it paid for POSTAGE ON CIRCULATION alone over $25,000.

Price, $1.00 per Year.

Every effort is used to make THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN a MODEL FAMILY NEWSPAPER, one that can be taken into any family with profit to each of its members. The Stories and other literary features are from the pens of the ablest and most approved writers. Among these are MRS. BURNETT, MISS PHELPS, MISS JEWETT, and MESSRS. STOCKTON, TROWBRIDGE, CLARK RUSSELL, HOWELLS, SIDNEY LUSKA, and E. P. ROE.

All the leading features of the paper which have made it SO POPULAR IN THE HOME CIRCLE will be continued and improved, and nothing will be left undone to keep it in the front rank as A SOUND, WHOLESOME NEWSPAPER.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From 115 to 161 Lbs.
To the Cuticura Remedies I Owe My Health, My Happiness, and My Life.

A day never passes that I do not think and speak kindly of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Seven years ago, all of a dozen lumps formed on my neck, ranging in size from a cherry stone to an orange. The large ones were frightful to look at, and painful to bear; people turned aside when they saw me in disgust, and I was ashamed to be on the street or in society. Physicians and their treatment, and all medicines, failed to do any good. In a moment of despair I tried the CUTICURA REMEDIES—CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, internally; the small lumps (as I call them) gradually disappeared, and the large ones broke, in about two weeks, discharging large quantities of matter, leaving two slight scars in my neck to-day to tell the story of my suffering. My weight then was one hundred and fifteen sickly pounds; my weight now is one hundred and sixty-one solid, healthy pounds, and my height is only five feet five inches. In my travels I praised the Cuticura Remedies, North, South, East and West. To Cuticura Remedies I owe my Health, my Happiness, and my Life. A prominent New York druggist asked me the other day, "Do you still use the Cuticura Remedies you look to be in perfect health?" My reply was, "I do, and I shall always. I have never known what sickness is since I commenced using the Cuticura Remedies." Sometimes I am laughed at by praising them to people not acquainted with their merits, but sooner or later they will come to their senses and believe the gamut as those who use them, as dozens have whom I have told. May the time soon come when there shall be a large CUTICURA Supply House in every city in the world, for the benefit of humanity, where the CUTICURA REMEDIES shall be sold ONLY, so that there will be rarely a need of ever entering a drug store.

Sneezing Catarrh

The distressing sneeze, sneeze, sneeze, the acrid, watery discharges from the eyes and nose, the painful inflammation extending to the throat, the swelling of the mucous lining causing choking sensations, cough, ringing noises in the head and splitting headache—how familiar these symptoms are to thousands who suffer periodically from head colds or influenza, and who live in ignorance of the fact that a single application of Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh will afford instantaneous relief.

But this treatment in cases of simple Catarrh gives but a faint idea of what this remedy will do in the chronic forms, where the breathing is obstructed by choking, putrid mucous accumulations, the hearing affected, smell and taste gone, throat ulcerated and hacking cough gradually fastening itself upon the debilitated system. Then it is that the marvelous curative power of Sanford's Radical Cure manifests itself in instantaneous and grateful relief. Cure begins from the first application. It is rapid, radical, permanent economical, safe.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

FURTHER INSIGHT INTO THE ADMINISTRATION VIEW OF HIM.

Correspondence Regarding the Case of United States Attorney Stone, of Pennsylvania—The President Sees No Parallel with Benton's Case and Refuses Reinstatement—Capital City Miscellany.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—The following correspondence relative to the case of William A. Stone, the suspended district attorney for the Western district of Pennsylvania, was made public Wednesday afternoon:

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18, 1886.—HON. A. H. GARLAND, ATTORNEY GENERAL.—SIR: I have read the correspondence between the president and Hon. M. E. Benton, United States attorney, connected with his restoration to office, in which it appears that he was suspended from office for his apparent neglect of official duties in making campaign speeches. Presumably my suspension was ordered for the same reason. I desire therefore to state the facts in my case. I made but two speeches prior to the receipt of the order of suspension—one at Butler in an adjoining county on the evening of Oct. 1, and one at Kittanning, a town near to Pittsburg, on the evening of Oct 2. I did not leave Pittsburg for Butler until nearly 4 o'clock Oct. 4, and returned on the morning of the 2nd of Oct. about 9 o'clock. I left Pittsburg for Kittanning Saturday, Oct. 2, about 5 o'clock p. m., and returned the same night. Upon both of the above dates the United States courts here were not in session except a short time in the morning of each day for ordinary motions. I was in attendance upon the courts during the sittings, and did not leave the city upon either occasion until long after the courts had adjourned.

On Oct. 15th, the United States district court began its session at Pittsburg for the trial of jury cases, a petit and grand jury being in attendance. From Oct. 2 until Oct. 18 I was engaged in the preparation of United States causes for trial, and from Oct. 18 until Oct. 27, the date of the receipt of the order of suspension, I was engaged in the trial of these causes. Neither during this period from Oct. 2 to Oct. 27, nor at any other time, did I in any particular neglect the duties of my office. These statements may be verified by inquiry of any officer of our courts.

I feel it my duty, after reading the correspondence between the president and Mr. Benton, to state these facts in justice to myself, and respectfully request that this communication be referred to the president. I may also add that I did not think that making an occasional campaign speech to my neighbors, while not neglecting the duties of my office, would be a violation of the president's order of July 10, 1886. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
WILLIAM A. STONE.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Nov. 23, 1886.—HON. A. H. GARLAND, ATTORNEY GENERAL. DEAR SIR:—I have red the letter of the 18th inst. written to you by William A. Stone, lately suspended from office as district attorney for the western district of Pennsylvania, and the subject matter to which it refers has received my careful consideration. I shall not impute to the writer any mischievous motive in his plainly erroneous assumption that his case and that of M. E. Benton, recently suspended and reinstated, rest upon the same state of facts, but prefer to regard his letter as containing the best statement possible upon the question of his reinstatement.

You remember, of course that soon after the present administration was installed—and I think nearly a year and a half ago—I considered with you certain charges which had been preferred against Mr. Stone as a federal official. You remember, too, that the action we then contemplated was withheld by reason of the excuses and explanations of his friends. These excuses and explanations induced me to believe that Mr. Stone's retention would insure a faithful performance of official duty; and that whatever offensive partisanship he had deemed justifiable in other circumstances, he would during his continuance in office at his request, under an administration opposed to him in political creed and policy, content himself with a quiet and unobtrusive enjoyment of his political privileges. I certainly supposed that his sense of propriety would cause him to refrain from pursuing such a partisan course as would manifestly offend and irritate the friends of the administration who insisted that he should not be retained in office, either because of his personal merit, or in adherence to the methods which for a long time had prevailed in the distribution of federal offices.

In the light of a better system, and without considering his political affiliations, Mr. Stone, when permitted to remain in office, became a part of the business organization of the present administration, bound by every obligation of honor to assist within his sphere in its successful operation. This obligation involved not only the proper performance of official duty, but a certain good faith and fidelity which, while not exacting the least sacrifice of political principle, forbade active participation in purely partisan demonstrations of a pronounced type, undertaken for the purpose of advancing partisan interests, and conducted upon the avowed theory that the administration of the government was not entitled to the confidence and respect of the people. There is no dispute whatever concerning the fact that Mr Stone did join others who were campaigning the state of Pennsylvania in opposition to the administration. It appears, too, that he was active and prominent with noisy enthusiasm in attendance upon at least two large public meetings; that the speeches at such meetings were largely devoted to the abuse and misrepresentation of the administration; that he approved all this and actually addressed the meetings himself in some what the same strain; that he attended such meetings away from his home for the purpose of making such addresses; and that he was advertised as one of the speakers at each of said meetings. I shall accept as true the statement of Mr. Stone that the time spent by him in thus demonstrating his willingness to hold a profitable office at the hands of an administration which he endeavored to discredit with the people, and which had kindly overlooked his previous offenses, did not result in the neglect of ordinary official duty. But his conduct has brought to light such an unfriendliness toward the administration which he pretends to serve, and of which he is nominally a part, and such a consequent lack of loyal interest in its success, that the safest and surest guaranty of his faithful service is in my opinion entirely wanting. His course, in itself such as should not have been entered upon while maintaining official relations to the administration, also renews and revives, with unmistakable interpretation of their character and interest, the charges of offensive partisanship heretofore made, and up to this time held in abeyance.

Mr. Stone and others of like disposition are not to suppose that party lines are so far obliterated that the administration of the government is to be trusted, in places high and low, to those who aggressively and constantly endeavor, unfairly, to destroy the confidence of the people in the party responsible for such administration. While violent partisan methods should not be allowed for partisan purposes to degrade or injure the public service, it is my belief that nothing tends to discredit our efforts, in the interest of such service, to treat fairly and generously the official incumbency of political opponents, as conduct such as is here disclosed. The people of this country certainly do not require the best results of administrative endeavor to be reached with such agencies as these.

Upon a full consideration of all I have before me, I am constrained to decline the application of Mr. Stone for his reinstatement. I enclose his letter with this, and desire you to acquaint him with my decision.
Yours truly, GROVER CLEVELAND.

The New Cruisers.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—The bids for the new cruisers received at the navy department, Secretary Whitney says, are not more than 15 per cent. higher than the same class of vessels can be built for in Europe, which, considering the comparative price of labor here and there, the secretary thinks is very reasonable. It is expected that Crump, of Philadelphia, will get cruiser No. 2 and gunboat No. 1; the Union Iron works, of San Francisco, cruiser No. 3; the Columbia Iron company, of Baltimore, gunboat No. 2, and the bids for cruiser No. 1 will probably be rejected as too high.

A CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY.

Close of the Investigation of the Police Scandal.

WASHINGTON, CITY, Nov. 25.—The decision of the District commissioners in the police scandal case was reached Wednesday. The charge was that Chief of Police Walker had instructed his subordinates to watch congressmen who visited a disreputable portion of the city, the object being to use the developments as a sort of blackmail to force congress to vote an increase of the District police. The verdict permits Walker to resign, dismisses Lieut. Arnold and Private Edelin, and suspends Lieut. Kelly.

Major Walker, chief of police, has placed his resignation at the disposal of the commissioners, and it was at once accepted. The deposed chief, before his resignation was accepted, handed the commissioners a long letter, in which he charges a conspiracy on the part of ex-Detective McDevitt, Lieut. Arnold, and Policeman Edelin to involve the police department in disreputable transactions for the purpose of forcing the reinstatement of McDevitt. In proof of this he makes public several anonymous letters received by him and the District commissioners, which letters he charges were written by McDevitt. The decision of the commissioners and this letter of Maj. Walker creates considerable discussion, and criticisms both favorable and adverse to the commissioners are plentiful. Many think the matter is not yet ended, and that a congressional investigation will follow.

Dividing Land Among Indians.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—Secretary Lamar has received the report of the Indian commission in which the Umatilla Indians agree to the allotment of the Umatilla Indian reservation in Oregon in severalty. After each Indian has received his share of land, a large surplus will remain and, this surplus, it is agreed, shall be sold and the money received for the same paid to the Indians. This will throw upon the market a large quantity of some of the best farming land in the state of Oregon.

Where The Bonds Are Owned.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—In his annual report Gen. Rosecrans, register of the treasury, says that of the entire amount of registered bonds outstanding—$1,071,322,062—only $11,688,100 are held abroad; $242,583,200 are owned by national banks; $460,846,792 by individuals, trustees, etc; $178,307,000 by savings banks, trust companies, etc., and $61,507,000 by insurance companies.

Maps for the Multitude.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—The commissioner of the general land office has forwarded to the officers of the senate and house the maps of the United States due the members of the house of representatives and senators under joint resolution. This gives each senator about thirty and each representative about ten maps for distribution.

Wants Over Seven Millions.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—Commodore Harmony, chief of the bureau of yards and docks, navy department, in his annual report, calls for $7,380,020 to defray the expenses for repairs and preservation and general maintenance of navy yards and docks and naval stations for the next fiscal year.

Busts of Vice Presidents.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—The busts of Vice Presidents Hamlin, Wheeler, Arthur, Adams and Jefferson will be the first five placed in the niches of the north wall of the senate chamber, as provided for in the resolution passed by the senate.

Given Internal Revenue Places.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 25.—John C. Canlan has been appointed gauger at Wyandotte, Mich., and Byron W. Sever has been appointed storekeeper and gauger at Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Free Trade.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefitted the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen, has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size. The August Flower for Dyspepsia and liver complaint, and the German Syrup for cough and lung troubles, have perhaps, the largest sale of any, medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles 10 cents remain the same size.

THE QUESTION of a proper food for infants interests all mothers; especially those unable to nurse their offspring. Mellin's Food possesses all the requisites as a substitute for mothers' milk, and is highly commended by the medical faculty of both Europe and America.

Can Square Up in Time.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Baker & Clark, wholesale produce dealers at Greenwich and Jay streets, this city, have assigned to Clarence F. Birdseye, with preferences for about $200,000. Their liabilities are estimated at $300,000, and the assets will, it is thought, make a good showing. In fact, Mr. H. K. Thurber, who is a creditor, says he thinks the firm will come out all right if granted time. The creditors seem generally disposed to grant extensions. The firm have been in business twenty-five years, and enjoyed first-rate credit.

Shockingly Injured by an Elevator.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Louis Bedowsky, a young Polander, met with a shocking accident Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. He was on a lower floor of a factory looking up the shaft for the elevator which was at the third floor. Before he was aware the machine descended and its edge catching him on the forehead, literally scraped off his nose and portions of his mouth and forehead. He was taken to the county hospital. His injuries are not fatal.

Children Starving to Death

On account of their inability to digest food will find a most marvelous food and remedy in Scott's Emulsion. Very palatable and easily digested. Dr. S. W. Cohen of Waco, Texas, says: "I have used your Emulsion in Infantile wasting. It not only restores wasted tissues, but gives strength and increases the appetite."

THEFT BY THE BOAT-LOAD.

PROMINENT BUFFALO BOARD OF TRADE MEN IN TROUBLE.

Charged with Stealing Wheat Out of an Elevator by the Boat-Load—That Remarkable Jury in the McQuade Case Sent Home—Reed's Stealings Growing Larger—His Pitiable Condition.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 25.—The Commercial Advertiser says: A conspiracy by which systematic stealing has been going on, it is said, in connection with the vast elevator interests of this city has recently been ferreted out and the guilty persons brought to bay. Three of the accused persons are members of the board of trade. For several weeks past there have been rumors floating about the board of trade and in business circles generally. The matter, however, has been hushed up as much as possible, and for the sake of the families of the persons implicated a great effort has been made to keep the matter out of the newspapers. On Friday last the grand jury rose and brought in a long list of indictments, but the name of none of the parties implicated was mentioned. Vigorous inquiry in a trustworthy direction developed the fact that indictments had been found against three members of the board of trade, all of whom had been privately admitted to bail. The names of the persons are John A. Campbell, John Kennedy, and Andrew A. Egguiar. The fourth and by far the most important, though least conspicuous member of the conspiracy, is Mr. Henry P. Emslie, connected with the Richmond elevator. Several indictments were brought in against him by the grand jury. The game they are accused of playing is as follows:

Henry P. Emslie, an employe of the elevator, has charge of the loading and unloading of vessels with grain, and directs the general business of the elevator. Campbell, Kennedy or Egather, finding out from Emslie that there was grain in the elevator, would arrange with Emslin to send a boat around to the elevator and Emslie would see that it was loaded with grain. The understanding was that the boat load of grain should be sold by either Campbell, Kennedy or Egather, whichever one happened to be managing this particular "deal." After deducting the cost of transportation, etc., the agreement was that Emslie should have two-thirds of the proceeds from the sale, and that the seller should pocket the remaining third.

Certain information having been obtained that 2,136 bushels of wheat had been stolen from the Richmond elevator, an investigation was instituted which resulted in the finding of sufficient proofs to establish, without question, the fact that there was a conspiracy, and that stealing was going on all the time. Emslie was confronted with the facts, and after a long interview admitted the whole business from beginning to end and named the persons implicated with him, besides detailing the mode of procedure pursued by the conspirators. Emslie not only admitted the stealing of the 2,136 bushels of wheat, but showed that over 70,000 bushels had been stolen in the same manner by the same arrangement with different persons. As soon as these facts became known they were presented to the grand jury and indictments were found against the persons implicated as related above. To what extent the systematic stealing has been carried on is not yet fully known. Even the owners of the Richmond elevator did not know until Wednesday that the wheat was being stolen. Besides the criminal indictments against these parties it is understood that all the persons implicated have been served with papers in a civil suit.

Bissell, Sicard and Goodyear are the attorneys for the Richmond elevator. Mr. Goodyear was seen Wednesday by a reporter, but declined to say anything about the matter. Mr. McCrossin, who has charge of the Richmond estate, was also questioned by a reporter. All he could be induced to say was: "This ought not to be in print. It will do great damage to the elevator interests of this city. Later it might be proper, but not now."

Mr. John A. Campbell is a gentleman well-known in business and social circles. A few years ago he bought an elegant residence on Linwood avenue for about $20,000, it is said. He recently tendered his resignation as secretary of the Frontier Elevator company and it is surmised his action was due to the exposure of the facts related above. Mr. Campbell is of the firm of Campbell & Ratcliffe, grain and commission merchants. Mr. John Kennedy is a member of the firm of Kennedy, Pfohl, Sherman & Jones, dealers in damaged grain at 221 Washington street. Mr. Andrew Egather is a member of the firm of Andrew Egather & Co., forwarding and commission merchants, at 21 Perry street.

SOMEWHAT PREMATURE.

An Insane Anarchist Who Was Off on His Dates.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—"Blood! First the social revolution is upon us!" Thus said Joseph Demin as he entered Pfaff's saloon, at 107 Allen street, at noon Wednesday. He thereupon drew a pistol, and, levelling it at the crowd in the place, commenced to fire. The inmates scattered and got out of the reach of the bullets as fast as possible. All but Sebastian Kuntzman, a German painter, 55 years old, who was careless. He was struck on the head by one of the bullets and fell as if dead. Policeman Max Spavenberg, of the Eldridge street station, rushed in at this moment and clubbed the shooter into submission and took him to the lock-up. Kuntzman was taken to the hospital and is now lying in a dangerous condition. Demin was afterward taken to Essex Market court. He is evidently insane. He said, as the handcuffs were put on him: "I am an Anarchist, and I will kill. Anarchist means blood." The pistol he used was a 32-caliber, double-acting revolver, of the "Blue Jay" pattern. Five shots in all were fired.

A Southern Pacific Scoop.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—The Southern Pacific company and the Pacific Improvement company have bought the South Pacific Coast railroad, which extends from San Francisco to Santa Cruse, eighty miles. The amount paid is not exactly known, but is understood to be between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000. The railroad proper was taken by the Southern Pacific company and the real estate, water fronts and other collateral property by the Improvement company. The transfer takes effect at once, but no change in the management of the road will be made at present.

—The supper for the Guards' annual will be served at Golling's restaurant under the supervision of G. A. Shurtleff.

—Mrs. Leod H. Becker, North Jackson street, entertained the Whist Club on Wednesday evening in a right royal manner.

—The members of Oriental Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, and their families, will enjoy a 'social" at Castle hall this evening.

—People's Lodge No. 460, Independent Order of Good Templars, assemble in regular weekly session this evening—lodge room in the M. E. church block.

—Mr. Olof Anderson and Miss Mary Borson, both of this city, were married by the Rev. G. S. Hubbs, at his residence, on Sunday last.

—Several of the Janesville young ladies who have been attending school in other cities, are entertaining school friends through the holidays.

—The committee appointed by the board of supervisors to report as to the advisability of keeping up the municipal court were in session at the court house to-day.

—The railway bridge builders were at work yesterday, and many citizens were attracted up North River street to witness the operation of building an iron bridge.

—The gravel trains are coming nearer and nearer to this end of the line on the cut-off, and the erection of an iron bridge at River street, is progressing rapidly.

—It is not quite safe to criticise weather predictions about this time of year, but people were heard remarking very cheerfully this morning, "not very much of a blizzard after all."

—Mr. Frank Hager and Miss Augusta Lantz, both of this city, were married by the Rev. Thomas Walker, of the First M. E. church, at his residence on November 24th.

—The members of the fire department desire to return their hearty thanks to Mr. William Rose, for the ample supply of "red hot" coffee furnished during the fire on Wednesday morning.

—Thanksgiving day was generally observed in this city yesterday. Business was generally suspended, especially in the afternoon and evening, and our streets were as quiet as on Sunday afternoon.

—A very fine turkey for Thanksgiving, was delivered at the residence of Rev. Thomas Walker. The unknown donors will please accept our hearty thanks.
THOMAS WALKER AND FAMILY.

—William Swan, the young man in charge at the artesian well, had his foot caught in some gearing this morning and received painful injuries. One toe was so badly crushed that it had to be amputated.

—The remains of George N. Pierce, whose death, occurring in Canada, was noticed in the Gazette, reached here this morning. Funeral services were held at St. Mary's church this afternoon, the interment being at the Catholic cemetery.

—Miss Francis J. Wheeler, daughter of L. F. Wheeler, D. D. the returned missionary, is to lecture in many towns through the state, on her experiences in China and her escape after the recent riots there. She appears in Chinese raiment.

—Hummel Guss who was before Judge Batten a few days ago for using abusive language to Dr. David Robinson has been discharged. Robert Courtney was the only witness called and it seemed doubtful whether Guss had done anything or not.

—The John Thompson & Sons Plow Works, at Beloit, were damaged to the extent of $2,500 by fire at an early hour on Wednesday morning. The Beloit people are loud in their praise of the water works, as their efficacy was demonstrated at this fire.

—In the municipal court this afternoon W. C. Stevens appeared and entered a plea of not guilty to the charges made against him. He claimed that at the time of the shooting he was insane and therefore not responsible for his acts. The case is set for December 7th.

—There was a very large attendance at the annual dancing party of Rescue Hook & Ladder Co., at the Guards Armory on Thanksgiving eve, and the evening was most pleasantly spent. The committee and company are to be congratulated on the good success of the "annual."

—A telegram was received in the city last evening which stated that Mrs. D. A. Beale, formerly a well known temperance worker in this city, was very low and probably could not live through the night. The dispatch was sent from San Francisco where Mrs. Beale went to regain her health.

—Miss Nellie Kent celebrated her birthday on Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Si Kent, Cherry street, fourth ward, by entertaining in a magnificent manner a large number of her intimate friends. The evening was most joyously spent in music, social games, etc., including a bountiful supper, enjoyed by all.

—A check of five thousand and sixty-six dollars was issued this morning by Clerk Wheeler, of the circuit court, to Anson Rogers for the right of way over his brewery property. This sum had been paid in by the Northwestern road for that purpose. The entire sum awarded by the commissioners of appraisal was $13,036, and the sum already paid out is $9,216. There is still $3,820 on Clerk Wheeler's books.

—The question concerning Bulgaria, now agitating Europe, is well understood to be really a question concerning Turkey. The people of this country yesterday combined in an attack on turkey, and have planned for another battle on Christmas, after which date the turkey question so far as Americans are concerned, will be practically settled till next Thanksgiving.

—If the city fathers, reasoning that man's innate "cussedness" would make him break some law or other, anyhow, passed the ordinances prohibiting fast driving over the bridges so there might be something that could be broken easily, their logic was sound. On the other hand, if they intended the ordinance to be enforced, they were very short-sighted, as everyone will agree.

—The funeral of John J. Murray was held at St. Patrick's church yesterday morning. As the deceased had been a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, that society turned out in a body, and at the close of the services, escorted the remains to the grave. The funeral cortege was headed by the Catholic cornet band, and the attendance of friends and relatives was large.

—At no other dance has the Young Men's Quadrille Club scored such a success as at the one last evening. Fully a hundred couples were on the floor of Rifles' Armory, and it was plainly shown that the trouble taken to arrange a series of parties where no one would be admitted without an invitation, was not wasted. The affair of last evening was a very enjoyable one, and Smith & Corliss' orchestra have never played for a more congenial gathering.

—Janesville is not blessed with alleys except in a very small degree. For this reason ashes and other refuse are hard to dispose of, but this should not excuse the turning of residence streets into dumping grounds, as is frequently done. Citizens from two or three wards are complaining of the matter already, and as it usually grows worse as winter comes on, something should be done to put a stop to the practice. A house which has in front of it a street littered up with potato parings and coal ashes may look all the better because of the contrast but we doubt it.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jacobson, Caroline street, second ward was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday evening, the contracting parties being the daughter of the host and hostess, Miss Lizzie S. Jacobson, and Mr. Charles V. Emmons. The Rev. W. F. Brown pronounced the beautiful words which united the happy hearts as one, while Miss Carrie Paulson acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Will Cunningham as groomsman. Though but few of the relatives, and only very intimate friends were present, the occasion was one of the most pleasant and enjoyable, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmons were the recipients of many hearty well-wishes for their future prosperity and happiness.

—Yesterday the Milwaukee Evenin Wisconsin published a short article concerning Judge Bennett and the Judge Small disbarment case. It was stated that since the matter came into Judge Bennett's hands, six months ago, nothing had been heard from it and the Milwaukee attorneys were becoming uneasy. When asked about it this morning his honor said that since the case had been submitted he had been busy nearly every day holding court. "I am now preparing an opinion," he continued "and as soon as I am satisfied about the matter I shall make it public, but not before." Judge Small is being tried for alleged unprofessional actions, it being charged that he accepted fees from both sides in a noted divorce case. Some of the attorneys had begun to claim that the matter would be dropped where it is, but Judge Benett flatly contradicts this.

—One of the happiest gatherings of the season was at the residence of M. A. Child, agent at Lima, Wis., C., M., & St. P. R. R., it being a family reunion which called together the children and grandchildren, about thirty in number. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller and family; Mr. and Mrs. Orson Truman and family, of Rockford, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Truman and family, G. W. Child and family, Miss Emeline Child, Mrs. A. S. Truman, and Miss Lillie Thompson, of Lima; Mrs. F. B. Child of Hanover; Mrs. E. H. Cook and daughter of Byron, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Child, Mrs. Hiram Murdock and little Maude, the great-grandchild, of Janesville. A few faces were missed at the home coming, all not being able to be there. The time was well filled up with music and merriment. It is no wonder that as the train rolled in, the railroad man called out to Mr. Child, "Are these all of your children?"

Don't!—If a dealer offers you a bottle of Salvation Oil without labels or wrappers, or in a mutilated or defaced package don't touch it—don't buy it at any price. Insist upon getting a perfect, unbroken, genuine package. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Suicide at Milton.

A special from Milton announces the death by suicide of Eben Bacon, a farmer. The death occurred last evening. The cause is said to be insanity. Death resulted from an over dose of morphine.

The Weather.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer indicated 14 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with northwest wind. At 1 p. m. the register was 30 degrees above zero. Cloudy with west wind. For the corresponding hours last year the register was 25 and 45 degrees above zero. At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 8 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with west wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 29 degrees above zero. Cloudy with west wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 31 and 43 degrees above zero.

A DAY OF THANKS.

Inspired by the pleasant weather, Janesville people attended the services yesterday in goodly numbers.

At the Baptist church, where a union service of the Congregational, Presbyterian, Baptist and the two Methodist societies was held, every seat was filled. After singing, and a prayer by the Rev. T. De Witt Peake, the Thanksgiving sermon was preached by Rev. Thomas Walker, of the First M. E. church. He spoke of the many things that there were to be thankful for, telling of the progress that had been made in every way during the past year, and of the bright prospects that there were for the twelve months to come. "Liberty Enlightening the World," he said, "is an apt symbol of the United States themselves. All of the old world nations are looking anxiously to see how we shall solve the problems that are just coming up, and our example will be a powerful one." The sermon was a strong one, and some very valuable points were brought out.

At Christ Church the service began at half past ten. The Rev. Dr. Spaulding's sermon was one appropriate to the day, and the music rendered was excellent.

The Rev. Dr. Conover's sermon on Thanksgiving day and its observance, at Trinity church, was listened to by a very fair-sized congregation. Dr. Conover pointed out the many things that there were for which to be grateful, saying that there was no one so unfortunate as to be utterly bereft of sweet blessings. The song service was a very appropriate one, and was under the charge of the rector's son, Mr. W. C. Conover.

Personal.

—Mr. Paul Iverson is reported to-day as being considerably better.

—Postoffice Inspector J. D. King, of Denver, Col., devoured turkey at his old home in this city yesterday.

—Mrs. Bart H. Baldwin and little daughter Carrie, went to Chicago on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with friends. They will return home to-morrow,

—Mr. Fred J. Kinney, of Rock Island, Ill., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinney yesterday and partook o Thanksgiving turkey, returning home this morning.

—Mr. R. A. Hammond, of Ashton, Dakota, who has been spending a week with Mr. Millington, started for his home Monday evening. Mr. Hammond i one of Dakota's enterprising young farmers.

Thanksgiving.

MR. EDITOR: After an absence from your beautiful city fifteen years or more I have been permitted through the goodness of an all wise Providence to return and see some of my old familiar friends and acquaintances and partake of their hospitalities on this Thanksgiving day at the residence of Mr. O. Baker and his much esteemed wife and family on Cornelia street in the 2d ward. We were most sumptously supplied with all the delicacies of the season, it isn't necessary to mention anything about a beautiful stuffed turkey and all its attachments as this is of course what most suffers on this notable day. At this most elegant repast was Miss Baker, of Montreal, Canada, sister of O. Baker, Miss D. Baker, Mr. G. Stanton, Mr. W. F. Baker and Mr. W. E. Sheldon, of Chicago. After being served with this sumptuous dinner we repared to Mrs. Baker's spacious parlor to talk over some of the events of the past year, how to-day we are spared to partake of God's bounties to us and the many who have been taken away by death during the year past. W. E. S.

Evansville.

—Stanley B. Smith, cashier Rock Co. National Bank at Janesville, was in town Wednesday afternoon.

—Martin Edwards opened Magee's Hall with a free skate Saturday night.

—Mr. J. M. Whitehead of Janesville occupied the pulpit of the Congregational church last Sunday.

—John De Witt Miller gave the first lecture of the course last Saturday night. The lecture was a good one and pleased the large audience that had assembled to hear him.

—Susan B. Anthony will speak for the Woman's Equal Suffrage Society at Wood & Kendall's Hall Saturday night. On Friday and Saturday the society holds a convention at the same place. Among the speakers are Clara B. and A. B. Gray of Warsaw.

—Smith & Antie have rented the Evansville Furniture Co's. store and will move their stock into it about Dec. 1.

—Dr. W. P. Roberts, Miss Maggie Gillies, and Nettie Porter have been elected delegates to attend the state Sunday school convention held at Milwaukee next week commencing Tuesday evening.

—Nettie Bruce, of Madison, who had a class of music at this place a year ago, died at her home last week and was buried last Saturday.

—Conflicting orders given by the officers of the railroad started several rumors last week; finally an order was given to continue work, Sunday included, on the cut off until it is in condition to run their trains on and if the weather is good that will be about December 1st.

—O. W. Gillman an old resident of Rock county, died at his home on Monday night, and was buried on Wednesday. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. E. Robinson and F. S Wharton, at the M. E church.

—Dr. J. M. Evans and daughter and J. M. Evans, Jr., and wife, went to Milwaukee Wednesday.

—Four dozen of dump cars have been received for the new coal shed. The shed is being built on the latest improved pattern.

Thanksgiving at the Arcade.

A Scotch-China pig, stuffed with berliner pfanekuchen and sauerkraut, will be served at 10 a. m., to-morrow at John M. Bauman's Arcade saloon, North Main street.

Something New.

Jersey coffee is roasted from stock selected especially for both strength and fine drinking qualities. Having secured the agency, we would be pleased to have all those who use the article to call, and give this celebrated coffee a trial, and we are sure you will use no other. Price 25 cents a pound for sale only at
BRACE & BROWN'S,
East End Grocery.

No lady who values a good complexion should use toilet powder without first applying cuticream as it prevents any injurious effects and renders the powder nearly invisible. Be sure that you get the genuine cuticream, and do not be persuaded into taking some cheaper article that you are told is "just as good," a simple comparison will at once convince you that cuticream is superior.

OBITUARY.

MRS. ELIZABETH ALDEN.

At seven o'clock last evening, after many months of weary waiting, the spirit of Mrs. Elizabeth Alden was released from its frail tenament, and the life which as it neared its close was so full of suffering, went out peacefully to the home beyond the river, the place "Not made with hands." Mrs. Alden was born in Jefferson county, New York Nov. 10, 1822, where she resided until her removal to Janesville in 1844.

She was a woman of modest, quiet deportment, possessed of many christian graces, enjoying the confidence and love of a large circle of friends who had learned to appreciate her unselfish character. During the Rev. Mr. Kinney's pastorate she became identified with the First Congregational church, and has ever since been a consistent and faithful member.

For the past year and a half she has suffered from an incurable disease, conscious of the fact that certain death was only just a little way ahead, yet not a murmur escaped her lips, and while passing through the ordeal of most intense anguish she patiently endured, always solicitous for the comfort of those about her, and never losing for a moment her sublime trust in God.

She waited for death calmly, and conversed about the future life as though planning for a long and pleasant journey. Every little detail was arranged with thoughtful care.

To such a life, death is but the closing of the mortal, and the unfolding of the immortal and endless existence where,

"Faith is lost in sight
And hope in full fruition dies."

The glad Thanksgiving, so full of joy and good cheer in every home where the day was observed, will always be remembered by the friends who watched by the bedside of the patient sufferer as the anniversary of a tired life at rest with God.

Mrs. Alden leaves an only daughter, Mrs. Mary Belton Denniston, to mourn the loss of a mother whose memory will ever be a sacred inspiration.

The funeral services will be held at the home on Jackson street, to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Hodge will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Miner.

Orfordville.

—Rain, rain is the condition of the weather at present.

—Tobacco sheds all open to suck the damp atmosphere.

—Village school opens Monday.

—Rev. Snyder occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church last Sunday. Presiding Elder Lugg will preach at the M. E. church next Sunday and evening.

—The Lever auction passed off better than expected last Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. Hendrickson Trustem, from Dakota, are expected down here soon. They will spend the winter with parents. Hendrick is well known in Orford, being born here, we think, and lived here for many years, spending his boyhood. He is a brother of Mrs. Sorenson. Mrs. Hendrickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Knudtson, is as well known. We understand he is a well-to-do farmer in Grand Forks Co., Dak. Ter.

—Mr. H. Hesgard was in Beloit last Monday, with a double rig, on business.

—Mr. O. H. Rime was seriously hurt last week from a strain in the left foot He is unable to move around. We hope he will soon recover.

—Nearly all the stock at the sale by Ward Bro., administrators of the estate of Patrick Ward, sold very good. The day was a very unfavorable one, Tuesday the 23d. Some of the boys had a little to warm up with besides hot stones in their pockets, and occasionally "Charlie" would warm them up with a laugh. C. C. Stone, auctioneer. Receipts of sales, about $2,000.

—Although Tuesday was a very bad eve, quite a number were present at the Lodge of Good Templars. A part of the officers were installed. Others could not come, but are expected at next meeting.

—Friday, November 19, was a lively day on the Oris Lever farm, south of town, at the sale of about $800 worth of stock belonging to "Oris" Erick Overstrud, administrator of the estate of Osley Olson, brought a few head. The boss auctioneer, C. C. Stone, did the auctioneering. Nearly all of the hay on the farm, about 75 tons, was burned in the barn a short time ago, causing a scarcity for winter use, and the sale of stock.

—Dr. Henry Gifford has moved into his new office east of the hardware store. A pleasant location.

—P. N. Dyrud keeps oysters both in can and bulk and confectionery of all kinds. Call at the one-armed man and cheer him up with your patronage.

—Lena Hoganson from Iowa, is visiting with old friends in and around Orfordville.

—Miss Caroline Hangen is very sick from a fall sustained some time ago. We hope she will recover.

—At a meeting of the trustees of the M. E. church the subject of the basement, its use and the haphazard way it had been used, its needed repairs, etc. was brought up and a committee appointed to procure wood, lights and hire a janitor. Then rent it so that it might be known who were the authorities and what further arrangements to make so as to have a general understanding and a more general use of it hereafter. B. J. Taylor, Geo. Rossitoe and the pastor, are the committee.

—Rev. John Schneider, of Edgerton, a former pastor of the M. E. church here, preached last Sunday to his old congregation. After reading the fourth chapter of 2d Cor., he started out to preach in his usual historical way, taking for a text the 16th verse of 10 chapter of Romans. Mr. Schneider has many warm friends here who are always glad to hear or say a good word for him.

—Miss Tupper, of Evansville, is teaching in the Anderson district, southwest of town.

Emerald Grove.

—A paper, petitioning the Rock County Agricultural Society not to allow the sale of intoxicating liquors at the next annual fair, is being circulated in this place. Everyone interested in the cause of temperance and in the welfare of the society, should sign it.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will McNee are taking possession of their future abode, two miles east of the Grove, where they will be "at home" to their many friends as soon as Will gets stoves up, carpets down, and general furniture in order, which will be in a few days.

—Some 60 or 70 loads of hogs purchased by Chas. H. Stoller were taken to Shopiere last Friday for shipment. A certain old resident of Shopiere remarked that it was the first funeral procession of hogs that had ever come to Shopiere for shipment since he had lived there. For enterprise and energy Charlie is a hard one to beat. He also shipped 13 carloads last weed and bought four more loads for a shipment on Monday. Charlie is bound to give the farmers the full worth of their stock. Try him and you will be convinced.

—Thanksgiving services this year, will be held in the M. E. church. The discourse will be preached by Rev J. C. Maxham.

—A social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Boynton. A good-sized company assembled and spent a most pleasant season. A programme consisting of tableaux, recitations and readings was an enjoyable feature of the evening.

—The winter term of school in the Hanthorn district began last Monday. Mr. Will Crandall, of Milton, is the teacher.

—Mrs. Hanover, of Evansville, has been visiting in this place, being the guest of Mrs. Dr. Farr.

—Wm. Gardiner and family have completed arrangements for their removal and are now permanently settled in Janesville. They will be greatly missed in this community. The Hansen children will take charge of the place.

—Mr. Wm. Millington has been enlarging his residence by adding a wing on the west side.

—Owing to the inclement weather the lecture which was to have been given by Mrs. Samuel Plautz, last Thursday, did not come off. We trust, however, that, at a favorable time our citizens will have an opportunity of hearing it.

—Mrs. Dr. Farr visited friends in Beloit last week.

Big Tow of Coal Sunk.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 26.—The steamer Raymond Homer, with 200,000 bushels of coal in tow, struck a snag about fourteen miles above Marietta, Ohio, Thursday, and the whole tow was sunk. The steamer is safe. Loss, $15,000 to $20,000.

Crushed Into a Shapeless Mass.

FORT KEOGH, M. T., Nov. 26.—On Monday, in St. Lawrence mine, near Butte, a cage in the shaft refused to connect, and dropped a distance of 600 feet, crushing John Hamilton, who was below, into an unrecognizable mass.

Missing with Nine Men.

DETROIT, Nov. 26.—The schooner Owasco it is feared, has gone down on Lake Erie with a crew of nine persons. She cleared Saturday last from Fairport, Ohio, with a cargo of 600 tons of coal for Detroit. She was insured for $4,700.

Cremated in a Burning Stable.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—A stableman known as "Jack Rabbit" was burned to death Thursday night by a fire at Wark's stable, Twentieth and Market streets. The loss on the building is $2,000.

Silver-Plating Works Burned.

BUCYRUS, Ohio, Nov. 26.—The silver-plating works of this city burned Wednesday night. Loss, $35,000; insurance, $10,000.

Nice Conduct for Collegiates.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 26.—Teams from Princeton and Yale colleges played a game of football Thursday. The game was hotly contested for three hours, part of the time in a drenching rain, and was stopped by darkness without either side scoring. After the game ended 6,000 spectators tramped back to Princeton through the mud. Men wearing the colors of both colleges became intoxicated after reaching the village and became involved in a fight in the bar-room of the Nassau hotel. Several other fights occurred at other parts of the town, and at the railroad station Robert T. Green, Jr., Princeton, '85, son of Governor-Elect Green, was knocked down by a hackman, who jumped on him and injured him quite severely, one of his arms being broken in two places. The hackman has not as yet been arrested. A free fight occurred at the railway station between Princeton and Yale Students, but was stopped before any one was hurt.

The Atlanta Not a Success.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The new naval cruiser Atlanta, which has been on a trial trip in the sound, returned to the navy yard Thursday. Her commander reported a failure to realize the requirements of the contract specifications as to horse power. She steamed at the rate of thirteen knots per hour easily with 2,500 horse power, and it is thought that, with some alterations of machinery, she may realize the desired rate of 14 7-10 knots and 3,500 horse-power.

An Ex-Senatorial Scandal.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 26.—William Pitt Kellogg, ex-United States senator from Louisiana, arrived here Wednesday over the Dallas and Pacific from New Orleans. He is on his way to El Paso to look after some interests in Texas and Pacific land-grant bonds. He registered here, and a lady whom he knew was registered as Mrs. M. A. Wallace, of Chicago. She was Mrs. Minnie Wallace Walkup, New Orleans. Senator Kellogg went out riding with her, and both left on the west-bound Texas and Pacific train. While here Senator Kellogg was very attentive to Mrs. Walkup. Wallace Wood, a traveling salesman from New Orleans, who was on the train, says that Senator Kellogg telegraphed ahead for a section in the sleeping car, and that the couple entered it west of Fort Worth. Mr. Wood says he is intimately acquainted with both persons, and occupied a berth adjoining that of the senator. Mrs. Walkup was the cynosure of many eyes here, owing to her notoriety in the Emporia murder case.

Coke Workers Insist on Their Demands.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 26.—The convention of coke workers of the Miners' association, at Scottdale, Thursday, resolved to insist on the demands made some time ago and to invite the Knights of Labor to elect delegates to a joint convention, to be held on a date to be fixed by the master workman of the latter organization. It was also decided to allow the operators until Dec. 25 to consider the matter. It is understood that the knights will concur.

Talk of Fighting a Traffic Arrangement.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—There is talk of legal proceedings to restrain the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company from making the proposed passenger traffic arrangement with the Pennsylvania. The dissatisfied persons are those who aided the Baltimore & Ohio to gain entrance to Philadelphia on the understanding that it would form a competing line to New York.

Said Mrs. McGinley, I now wash alone
Since I've been using that famous "Cyclone;"
It makes the dirt fly without muscle or bone—
Long life to the inventor of that darling "Cyclone."

Faith, Biddy, says Pat, me clothes look so clean,
I kin walk on the sthreet with any spalpeen;
Indade thin you can,—an' when you come home,
Be shure that ye bring anither box of "Cyclone."

I'me tould their sinding it to the east and the west;
Thro' all the wide world that Sam's is the best,
If they sind it to ould Ireland thin I kin go home;
I could live in no country without the "Cyclone."

Whist! While I'me talkin, I mane for to tell—
That I'll send home a box to our ould friend, Parnell.
Whin they will git it, they will all cry och-one
God bless Mrs. McGinley for sending "Cyclone."

Interior of one of the most popular Turkish Bath rooms in Washington, D. C.

The Janesville

is not so elaborately finished and you will not find so lavish a use of rare marble and stained glass, but in all essential respects its appointments are almost exactly as shown in the illustration. Those who have patronized both say that one can get just as satisfactory a bath and attention in Janesville as in Washington.
The Janesville Turkish Bath is in the Norcross block, South River St. Open day and evening and Sunday from 8 a. m. to 12 m. Telephone No. 32. M. A. NORRIS, Manager.
